Dear friends in Jesus Christ,

Last couple of weekends through the Gospels, the Holy Mother Church has been inviting her children to be ready for the coming of a king called JESUS. Today, as we celebrate the feast of Christ the King, the Holy Mother Church invites her children to make a public announcement to the world that Christ is my King. Looking around, as a catholic one can say easily that our announcement for this special day and for our life- "Christ is my King" is not loud enough or heard enough. Is it because others are deaf or is our proclamation voice very feeble? Jesus became Christ the King not with His mighty power and authority, but through His Mercy, Love, and Compassion.

The feast of the Christ the King addresses the greatness of God and dignity He has given to us. The greatness of God is His unconditional love for us through His Passion, Death and Resurrection. The dignity that God has given to us is the image and likeness of God that we have and the forgiveness of our sins we enjoy in every moment of our lives. So, the feast reminds us that Jesus is the king of love, and through the same quality of love we should become another king in this world for Jesus. This is the only evangelization Jesus is asking us to do. All the saints in our Church are kings who manifested the love of Jesus in this world. As Christians, this is the purpose of our call as well – to be a champion of God's love in this world.

In today's Gospel, we see Pilate is asking Jesus; "Are you the king of Jews?" Yes, the true love of Jesus is being questioned here. The disciples questioned and doubted the love of Jesus many times, so also, we do, especially when we are going through some difficult moments in our lives. To the question, Jesus says fearlessly "my kingdom does not belong to this world." Yes, dear friends, people of this kingdom of world will continue to complain, grumble and doubt the love of God, but the people of the Kingdom of God, will accept everything as the will of God. So, as we celebrate this great feast of Christ the King, our greatest challenge is to transcend our kingdom from this world to the kingdom of God. Again, this feast reminds us that love is not only a feeling alone, more than that it is the proclamation of Jesus to this world. So, we shall not doubt, we shall not say an excuse for not loving, and we shall not misuse the love like Judas Iscariot, but let us love and love like Jesus until death. Let us not forget that it is the love that adds quality to our life, not the branded items we use in our lives; because the only difficult question we will have to face in our lives, at the last judgment, is –how much you loved?

Yes, only the true love of Jesus in us can make us accept the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus in our lives, to become another champion of love in this world to fulfill the dream of Jesus through our lives-to establish the Kingdom of God here in this world, where justice, freedom and love are flowing always. So, walking in the footsteps of Jesus, let us bring down the presence of God in this world to bless us always, not to punish us always. May the Power of Jesus be with us and in this world always and always. May God Bless.

Christmas Camp - Gasper River

Christmas Camp is from Sunday, Dec. 29 to Wednesday, Jan. 1. It is open to 8th grade and high school students (a great way for 8th graders to meet the kids they will be going to Camp LIFE with next summer and for high school campers to reconnect with old friends).

Christmas Camp is much more laid back than summer camp; campers still do all the activities, celebrate the Sacraments, and have Mass and Adoration, but with a more relaxed atmosphere. It's a great way to end one year and begin the next!

This year our theme is "Hope does not disappoint". We will be diving into Pope Francis' message on the 2025 Jubilee Year. Please visit our website, www.gasperriverretreatcenter.org for more information.

Thank you for your contributions to both churches.
